

Oral Presentations – Young Researchers Forum

Abstract submissions are open from – 10th December 2023

Weblink for Submission of Abstracts -

<https://www.acoms2024.com/WebPages/Delegatelogin.aspx>

Last date for Abstract submission – 31st March 2024

- The Scientific Committee welcomes abstracts from Delegates for oral presentations in the Young Researchers category at the ACOMS-2024, Chennai.
- Registration to the conference is mandatory prior to abstract submission.
- Each delegate can submit only ONE abstract.
- Delegates eligible to be part of this forum should be below 40 years with 5 to 10 years of active research experience in the field of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery.
- The presentation should involve original research which may be ongoing, completed or published work with due approvals for conducting the research/trial.
- Abstracts are invited under the following categories
 - Dentoalveolar Surgery / Nerve Injuries
 - Dental Implantology
 - Oral & Maxillofacial Pathology
 - Pre-prosthetic Surgery
 - Craniomaxillofacial Trauma
 - Head & Neck Oncology
 - Reconstructive Surgery
 - Cleft & Craniofacial Anomalies
 - Orthognathic & Aesthetic Surgery
 - TMJ Disorders & Surgery
 - Head & Neck infections
 - Research / New Technologies
 - Miscellaneous (please specify)
- Abstracts will be scrutinized by the Conference Scientific Committee for originality of topics/content.
- Acceptance and schedule will be shared by email/posted online at a later date

Abstract format

- Abstracts must be original and should not have been published elsewhere or submitted for publication in any Journal.
- Plagiarism should be avoided.
- Abstract needs to be submitted in Microsoft word format, in 12-point Times New Roman font and single spaced.
- Maximum word limit not to exceed 250.
- Abstract to be in structured form: Introduction, Methods, Results and Conclusion.

Abstracts selected for presentation will be informed after scrutiny by email. Abstracts not selected for this forum may be considered for oral/poster presentation on the recommendation of the scientific committee.